Ljubljana

Many travelers describe Ljubljana as a hidden gem of Europe. Ljubljana, the Green Capital of Europe 2016, is a city with a green soul and a sustainable vision of development. It boasts beautifully preserved green areas and nature even in the very heart of the city. It also offers a range of experiences that would be difficult to imagine elsewhere. The image of the city along the river with picturesque bridges and the market was designed by the famous architect Jože Plečnik. People here take the time to sit in outdoor cafes. A picturesque venue for your experiences is rounded off by an ancient castle that reigns on a hill over Ljubljana, dragons that are its symbol, and numerous romantic stories.

Lipica Stud Farm

The charm of the Lipica Stud Farm is not only in what we see, but in the stories that were written here by the past. Only when we walk along the path of history can we really feel the size of the local equestrian tradition. Lipica is the oldest European stud farm, which continuously breeds one of the oldest cultural breeds of horses. As such, it has the exceptional importance of cultural, historical and natural heritage, both for the Slovene and the wider European environment.
